Sign up for S.A.F.E.

The 2-hour self-defense awareness class for Women Only from the National Self-Defense Institute (NSDI)
a not-for-profit 501 (c)(3)
in collaboration with

WRIGHT STATE UNIVERSITY

Please Join Us!! February 15, 2017 12:15pm-2:30pm.
at the Ellis Human Development Institute,
9 North Edwin C. Moses Boulevard,
Dayton, OH 45402-6837
RSVP Ms. Manns at (937)775-4310

It’s only 2 hours and it’s FREE
See the video...
Participate & explore the option of physical self-defense & take away NSDI’s cool folio packed with the “90% of self-defense” you’ll be glad you know.

We want you to be safe... and this class will help by preventing crimes of sexual violence through education and training. It focuses primarily on awareness and prevention... and will educate WSU women about realistic options that will help them avoid, escape and survive assaults if they do occur.

It’s SMART to be SAFE

For Further Information Contact:
Crime Prevention Coordinator
Officer Patrick Ammon
Email: patrick.ammon@wright.edu
Phone: (937)775-2499 leave a voice mail